October 05, 2021 -
St. Charles, MO based Safina Cabinetry is pleased to inform their community that Safina Custom Cabinetry is now being offered in the Chicago, Illinois area. Safina Custom Cabinetry is a product line of the top-rated brand Centorbi. This means that Chicago customers now have access to high end cabinets that are custom-made from the finest materials.

As noted on the company?s website, Centorbi was founded in 1995 with a mission to provide high-quality cabinets to residential and commercial clients, designers, builders and remodelers in St. Charles, MO and the surrounding areas. They are one of the very few custom cabinet makers in the area that offer a complete range of products and services, including cabinet installation, cabinet refacing, custom bathroom vanities, custom kitchen cabinets, custom walk-in closets and kitchen remodeling. More details can be found here: https://www.centorbi.com/.

The company prides itself in producing cabinets of all shapes and sizes. They stay true to their promise of bringing every customer?s dream cabinetry to life by accepting even the most challenging design requirements. Safina Cabinetry and Centorbi combine superior workmanship and excellent customer service, making them one of the most sought after cabinet makers in the region.

According to Safina Cabinetry owner Derek Centorbi, the company offers a plethora of customizable options to their customers. If the customer prefers a more antique style, they have the Innovations cabinetry line (which features ornate carvings and classic designs). On the other hand, if the customer likes a sleek and contemporary look, Safina Cabinetry and Centorbi also offer the Slimline cabinetry line (features cleaner and more sophisticated lines). Derek asserts that all their cabinets pass through multiple quality control checks to ensure customer satisfaction.

In addition, Centorbi has been recognized as one of the one hundred fastest growing woodworking companies in America by Wood 100 and Wood and Wood Products. The company was also previously presented with the Kitchen of the Year award by St. Louis Homes and Lifestyle Magazine. They are a proud member of the Certified Builders Guild (CBG), The Cabinetmakers Association (CMA) and the National Kitchen and Bath Association (NKBA). Centorbi believes that the success of their business lies not only on the quality of their products but also the services they provide to their customers. This is the reason why they go above and beyond to make sure that all of their customers are happy and satisfied with their products and services. More details about the company?s achievements can be found here: https://www.houzz.com/pro/centorbi/centorbi-cabinetry.

Centorbi?s commitment to their customers now means the company enjoys an excellent reputation for quality workmanship and beautiful products. In a glowing review on Houzz, for instance, Terri Fujii says, ?I have used Centorbi Cabinetry on quite a few kitchen and bathroom projects, and chose Centorbi when I remodeled my own kitchen because I find them to offer the best combination of quality, style, selection, function and price. With Centorbi, my clients enjoy getting the luxury of truly custom cabinetry without paying custom prices. I enjoy the freedom and flexibility of designing the cabinetry exactly as is desired for the project. I also enjoy the comfort of knowing that my clients will get quality in which I can be confident. Centorbi even offers expert installation. You can count on Centorbi's part of the project running smoothly, on time and on budget.?

Jen Barton says in another top-rated Houzz review, ?Centorbi Cabinetry did an excellent job with our kitchen project. They had fantastic choices in cabinetry, did excellent work and delivered everything on time. There were one or two things we didn't like, and they changed it for us without adding to the cost. Cost of the project was very reasonable, compared to other bids we received. I highly recommend them for your project.?
