David S. Leigh, Esq. is known for working hard on behalf of his personal injury. As managing attorney and founder at the Law Office of David S. Leigh, Mr. Leigh has spent close to a decade fighting diligently for the benefit of his clients, holding negligent entities responsible for the client's damages and injuries. As a seasoned car accident lawyer in New York, Mr. Leigh has seen the suffering that carelessness and recklessness can exact on innocent victims and the unknown financial and physical burdens these actions can leave behind.

Throughout his decade as a car accident lawyer, Mr. Leigh has committed his law firm to victims of car accidents, truck crashes, slip and fall incidents, wrongful death claims, and other serious personal injury matters in New York. Although Mr. Leigh is both a skilled litigator and negotiator, he feels his principal talent is his capacity to appreciate his clients' circumstances and listen closely to the client's concerns. Mr. Davydov wants each client to comprehend what is happening at every point during the case and never continues without having their informed suggestions.

"Despite how complex a personal injury case may be, every client should be able to comprehend exactly what is happening throughout their lawsuit, the possible effects, and to know that they are heard and recognized. At our firm, we describe each step of the process so that the clients can be active participants in their future," Mr. Leigh explained. "Knowing I am an essential part in getting the client's life back to normal is what makes me passionate about the law."

Mr. Leigh's customers appear to agree. Throughout his career, clients have often shared how thankful they were for Mr. Leigh's hard work and commitment to their case.

Hector Sidney from New York writes: "David is an outstanding lawyer. Extremely professional yet personable. Very educated, serious and also focused on the concerns of your case. Not to fret, this is the law firm for you if you feel that there has been any kind of discrimination against you in any way or if you feel like your civil rights are being violated."

"I'm honored that our clients value all that we do for them. These evaluations and testimonials signify how committed we are to providing superior legal services for our clients," Mr. Leigh continued. "We only work on contingency, so our customers never pay any legal charges unless we do our tasks and recover compensation on their behalf. Because of this, there is absolutely nothing to lose and everything to gain for somebody who has been hurt by a negligent party."

Mr. Leigh and his group of personal injury attorneys happily represent hard-working individuals throughout NYC. While they primarily focus on accident law, as it includes members of the community, the law office has likewise assisted people with a variety of legal concerns that a community member may have come across in their personal or professional lives.

Mr. Leigh understands no case is the same and each customer is distinct, however, he deals with each claim with the same diligence and dedication in order to make sure each client's best interests and legal rights are represented.
