Lawrenceville, GA-based Jumptastic Party & Event Rental is a company that has always come up with creative ways to make indoor and outdoor events more fun. Now the company has just added another option to the mix. It is now offering inflatable movie screen rental which can be used in a number of fun ways. That includes having an outdoor gathering with family and friends to watch a beloved NFL or College football team. Jumptastic has screen sizes that are available to accommodate a smaller-sized event or a larger outdoor gathering or party. It's just another way the company can help take the fun at any Atlanta area event, gathering, or party to a whole new level.

A company representative says, "We at Jumptastic are always looking for the next big thing when it comes to taking the enjoyment at a party, event, or gathering to a much more enjoyable level and we think we have found it. That is our new inflatable movie screen rental options. No longer do our customers have to put many people in a small room to watch their favorite sporting event or show. We have the screens and support equipment available to now make that same gathering a much more relaxing, comfortable, and fun event."

According to the company representative, they have two available inflatable movie screen sizes to choose from. Their 12' wide movie screen is perfect for smaller and more quaint events and larger crowds will enjoy the viewing pleasure that their 16' wide inflatable movie screens offer. He added that these are not some cheap movie screen setups either. They are all commercial-grade units that are made using high-quality waterproof vinyl and party and event-goers will be pleasantly surprised with the picture quality. Customers even have the option to take advantage of one of the company's inflatable movie screen rental packages which help add to the fun and convenience of the experience for both hosts and guests. These setups include such essential movie fare as the inflatable movie screen size of choice, a set number of chairs for the occasion, and even a real movie theatre-style popcorn machine. Best of all, the company says that a customer can conveniently book an inflatable movie screen rental right online. Included in the rental price are the setup of the equipment in a safe area, instructions on how to operate it, and the timely pickup of the inflatable movie screen and support equipment. This is the 3rd time I have used them and will continue to recommend them to friends and family." Cynthia wrote, "They are professional and have amazing rates. They came earlier than expected but did not charge extra. Set up was easy and the gentlemen were extremely pleasant. I would absolutely use Jumptastic again and I've already recommended them to friends."
