

Houston Tree Service Experts Organizes a Free Park Tree Removal Day in Houston City

September 20, 2021

September 20, 2021 -
Houston, Texas ? After realizing that public parks in Houston City carried a large number of dead weight ? in the form of dead and/or damaged trees ? Houston Tree Service Experts decided to offer one of its days to get rid of these trees. By the end of yesterday, the company had removed more than 50 dead and damaged trees together with their stumps, creating room for new, healthy trees.

?Our parks carry a large percentage of this city?s urban forest,? said Houston Tree Service Experts CEO, ?but, we would be lying to ourselves if we say that we have a good urban forest while the parks have a large number of dead or damaged trees. Yesterday we decided to show the residents of this beautiful city why we are called the best tree removal company Houston. We visited some of our parks and removed dead and damaged trees for free.?

Boasting close to 3 decades of tree service experience, Houston Tree Service Experts is a company that handles more than just tree removal. Using its tree trimming team Houston, the company restores aesthetic appeal in homes and commercial properties with overgrown trees. Through tree pruning, the company restores health and safety on trees carrying dead branches and diseased limbs. Through emergency tree service Houston, the company helps restore safety on landscapes with trees that are threatening to fall.

Houston Tree Service Experts indicates that its services are enjoyed by more than just residents in the city of Houston. The company also offers its services in neighborhoods like Katy, The Woodlands, Pearland, Bellaire, League City, Spring, and Clear Lake City. The company indicates that its customers enjoy fast responses irrespective of where they live.

?We try to finish all requested tree service procedures on the same day,? said the company?s chief of field operations. ?If you request your tree service procedure early enough, we will arrive on your property before the day ends and finish it.?

Houston Tree Service Experts notes that its customers benefit from 1-hour response when it comes to emergency tree services. ?Our tree service line stays open day and night so that our emergency response team can catch tree emergencies early enough,? said the chief of staff, ?Whether you call us at night or during the day, we will do our best to start handling the tree emergencies before an hour elapses.?
