September 23, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Newport, North Carolina based Island Trash is reaching out to the wider community to share information about the services they provide. The company is dedicated to giving the residents of North Carolina a reliable and secure way of dealing with their waste materials. More information about the company can be found here: Island Trash Containers - Newport, NC.

Island Trash says, "If you need a roll-off dumpster rental for your next project, you need to look no further than Island Trash. No matter what project you are doing or what capacity you need, we've got you covered. With multiple roll-off sizes to choose from, you'll be set for all your waste disposal needs whether your project is residential, commercial or construction-related."

The company continues, "We have many years of experience in the dumpster rental business, and that time has given us a great understanding of what our customers are looking for. This is why, on top of providing great dumpsters for rent, we have also developed a straightforward ordering system that allows you to reserve the bin you need on your own schedule. No more waiting around to get in touch with an unreliable rental company; you get what you need as and when you need it."

Anyone who wants to rent a dumpster simply needs to visit Island Trash's website, use their online form, fill out the pertinent details, pick a date that works for them and submit their payment details. The rest of the work will be done by Island Trash, without inconveniencing the customer to an unnecessary degree.

The two main types of dumpsters provided by Island Trash are the 15-yard dumpster and the 20-yard dumpster. According to the company, their 15-yard dumpster rental is great for small residential and commercial projects of all types. Whether a customer needs to take care of some unwanted junk around the house or they are planning a remodeling project, this container can handle it all. The 20-yard dumpster, on the other hand, is perfect for roofing projects, fencing jobs, large cleanout projects and kitchen and bathroom renovations.

Island Trash deals with all kinds of junk and trash. The items they are able to dispose of include but are not limited to refrigerators, garbage, mattresses, construction waste, yard waste, trash, appliances, televisions, e-waste disposal and so on. The company wants to reassure all customers that no matter what kind of waste their project involves, it will be dealt with in a safe and effective manner.

The services provided by the company have made them quite popular among North Carolina residents. On their Google profile alone, they have a perfect 5 out of 5 Star rating. In a review found on the company's website, Molly C. writes that the company offered them a, "Great service for several different services during a construction job. Two loads of dirt and a larger container of construction debris were handled quickly and at less cost than other similar debris removal companies. Island Trash was able to send containers to a specific spot on the property/driveway without needing additional direction. Will use them again in the future."

In another review, Jerry P. shares, "We just recently used the Island Trash waste removal service after Hurricane Florence, and they were awesome to work with. Everyone from this organization was very pleasant and easy to work with. They did everything they said they would and were an extreme pleasure to work with. As we encounter more re-roofing jobs in the area, we will be calling on them for their services. We highly recommend this organization."

The Island Trash website hosts more information about the company itself and all the services they offer. The website can be found at the following link: Island Trash Containers - Home.
