Long Beach, California ? A company that is very committed to keeping Long Beach?s heritage trees healthy, Tree Service Experts Long Beach has trimmed a 90-year-old tree for free. The tree, which stands in the public?s right of way, is supposed to be maintained by the city?s government. However, the company decided to obtain a license and work on the tree when one of its professionals noticed that it hadn?t been trimmed for close to a year.

?Government procedures are quite slow,? said Tree Service Experts Long Beach CEO. ?And we knew the department tasked with maintaining the tree may take another couple of months before trimming it. As a way to give back to the community, we decided to trim the tree for free.?

Tree Service Experts Long Beach cited some of the benefits of tree trimming, indicating that waiting longer before trimming the pine could have contributed to the detriment of the tree?s health. ?When our tree trimming team Long Beach works on a tree,? said the company?s chief of field operations, ?they remove branches causing overcrowding. This allows sunlight to penetrate and reach the tree?s inner branches ? this boosts the tree nutrient contentment by enhancing photosynthesis. Additionally, trimming increases air circulation, which is also a very crucial health factor.?
