David S. Leigh, Esq. is no stranger to working hard for his personal injury. As founder and managing attorney at the Law Office of David S. Leigh, Mr. Leigh has spent nearly 10 years fighting hard for the rights of his clients, while holding responsible entities responsible for the client's damages and injuries. As a competent car accident lawyer in New York, he has seen the pain that negligence and recklessness can easily exact on innocent victims and the untold physical and financial burdens these types of decisions can leave behind.

Over his decade as a car accident lawyer, Mr. Leigh has devoted his law firm to victims of car accidents, truck collisions, slip and fall personal injuries, wrongful death claims, and other serious personal injury cases in New York. Although both a skilled negotiator and litigator, he feels his primary talent is his capability to understand his clients' situations and listen closely to the client's needs. He really wants each client to clearly understand what is happening at every point during their case and never continues without having their informed feedback.

"No matter how complicated a case may be, every client should be able to understand exactly what is going on throughout their lawsuit, the possible effects, and to feel heard and recognized. At our firm, we discuss each action of the procedure so they can be active parties in their future," Mr. Leigh described. "Knowing I am an important part in getting their life back to normal is what makes me passionate about the law."

His clients appear to concur. Throughout his career, clients have often discussed how thankful they were for Mr. Leigh's hard work and dedication to their case.

Sharon Herbert from New York writes:" I was in a car accident about 2 years ago, and I was injured horribly. I went to a different attorney but they didn't really appear to care too much. So a friend told me about this personal injury attorney and said to come here instead. They were so great, I'm really grateful I made the switch. After I changed my car accident attorney, the whole process went much smoother and I was able to get an excellent settlement and get it quickly too. Very satisfied with my experience and would tell anyone to go here."

"I'm honored that our clients value all that we do them. These evaluations and testimonials signify how dedicated we are to providing exceptional legal services for our clients," Mr. Leigh continued. "We only deal with contingency, so our customers never pay any legal costs unless we do our tasks and recuperate settlement on their behalf. Because of this, there is absolutely nothing to lose and everything to gain for someone who has been injured by an irresponsible party."

Mr. Leigh and his group of personal injury attorneys happily represent hard-working people throughout the city. While they mostly concentrate on personal injury law, as it involves members of the neighborhood, they have likewise helped individuals with a variety of legal problems that a client may have come across in their personal and professional lives.
