David S. Leigh, Esq. is familiar with working hard on behalf of his clients. As managing attorney and founder at the Law Office of David S. Leigh, he has spent close to ten years fighting hard for the benefit of his clients, helping to hold responsible entities accountable for their damages and injuries. As an experienced personal injury lawyer in New York, Mr. Leigh has seen the suffering that negligence and recklessness can exact on victims and the unknown physical and financial burdens these types of actions may cause.

Over his career, Mr. Leigh has committed his law office to victims of car collisions, truck collisions, slip and fall incidents, wrongful death victims, and other serious personal injury matters in New York. Although Mr. Leigh is both an experienced litigator and negotiator, he believes his principal talent is his capacity to appreciate his clients' situation and pay attention closely to the client's concerns. He wants each client to comprehend what is taking place at every point during their case and never proceeds without having the client's informed feedback.

"No matter how complicated a personal injury case may be, every client should be able to understand exactly what is going on throughout their case, the possible effects, and to feel heard and recognized. At our firm, we describe each step of the procedure so that the clients can be active parties in their case resolution," Mr. Leigh explained. "Knowing I am an integral part in getting their life back on track is what makes me passionate about the law."

Mr. Leigh's clients appear to agree. Over the course of his practice, clients have shared how thankful they were for Mr. Leigh's hard work and dedication to their claim.

Johns Evan from New York writes: "Mr. Leigh is the definition of dedication and hard-work. He's my 1st experience with a lawyer (I hired his law firm to represent me in two separate cases) ... and every time it was an excellent experience. David's completely hands-on, remarkably attentive, asked all the right questions, constantly looked into me, and prepared me for any and every single possibility. He is additionally exceptionally competent. I always recommend Mr. Leigh to family and friends they were all happy with the outcome of their car accident cases. I think about him to be like family simply because that's how hard he worked with me and that he expressed compassion for my condition. Selecting Mr. Leigh is a decision you will not regret."

"I'm honored that our customers appreciate all that we do them. These reviews and testimonials symbolize how devoted we are to offering superior legal services for our clients," Mr. Leigh continued. "We only deal with contingency, so our customers never pay any legal costs unless we do our tasks and recover a settlement on their behalf. Because of this, there is nothing to lose and everything to gain for someone who has been hurt by an irresponsible party."

Mr. Leigh and his team of personal injury attorneys proudly represent hard-working people throughout New York City. While they mainly focus on personal injury law, as it includes members of the community, the law office has also helped people with a range of legal problems that a community member may have come across in their individual or professional lives.

Mr. Leigh understands no case is the same and each client is unique, but, he takes on each claim with the same diligence and commitment to guarantee each client's interests and legal rights are represented.

David S. Leigh, Esq. and the Law Offices of David S. Leigh are proficient personal injury lawyers with almost a decade of experience representing victims of carelessness. Throughout their careers, the attorneys associated with the law office have recuperated large sums as settlements for their clients.
