Medela Breast pumps have been in used for some time now. Insurance Covered Breast Pumps ensures that mothers can access a Medela breast pump without going through the financial burden. This is achieved through breast pumps that are covered by insurance. Recently, the company has announced that they now have Medela Freestyle Flex? Double Electric Breast Pump in stock.

According to the website, ?Freestyle Flex? is an electric breast pump designed to fit into your life: its light, compact design and USB-chargeable battery give you the flexibility to express wherever and whenever you like, with no compromise on pumping performance. Rechargeable Battery: Built-in, USB-chargeable* battery with 2-hour life for convenient pumping anywhere you are. Only use the power adapter and cable that comes with the breast pump. Weighs Less Than 1 lb: Compact and lightweight making it portable and easy to pump on-the-go. Closed System with Overflow Protection: Prevents your breast milk from entering the tubing or motor. Backlit Touchscreen Display: Makes pumping at night easier than ever. PersonalFit Flex? Breast Shields: Adapt to your breast shape for personalized comfort and 11.8% faster milk flow compared to traditional 90° breast shield. (two sizes included)"

The site also adds, "Keep Track with MyMedela® App: Connect easily with Bluetooth to keep track of your pumping sessions. Portable Microfiber Carry Bag Designed Specifically for Your Freestyle Flex Breast Pump Parts: Provides convenient transportation and organization. 2-Phase Expression®: Technology mimics baby?s natural sucking rhythm ? faster at first to stimulate milk flow, then slower to feed ? for more comfortable and efficient pumping.?
