One Source Media Vinyl Wraps, a vinyl sign shop in Queens, New York City, recently announced that they have finished another vehicle vinyl wrapping project for a local customer.

“Dom reached out to us wanting his 2018 Range Rover to look new and stunning,” says One Source Media owner Brian Miranda. “After the consultation, he decided to have us wrap the car with satin black car wrap from Avery Dennison.”

For this wrapping project, as with most One Source Media car wraps, customer preference guided the choice of finish and color, while the wrap experts of OSM also weighed in. “Dom knew he wanted something sleek-looking and black,” Miranda explains, “We normally use Avery Dennison and 3M vinyl wrap products, and in this case, we just knew that Avery’s satin black would be perfect.”

The entire process of wrapping the Range Rover took Brian and his team a day and a half, which is a fairly normal turnaround time for wrapping larger vehicles such as SUVs, pickup trucks, or large sedans.

Miranda reports that the customer was very pleased with the new aesthetic of his vehicle. "Dom really liked it," he says. "He walked into the shop and his eyes popped open just a little." One Source Media has always prioritized the customer experience, Miranda explains. "Our customers are our top priority, and we always want them to have that wow factor."
