

Angelight? Meditation Crystal Creator Launches New Website On 10/19/2015

October 15, 2015

October 15, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Angelight? has announced the launch of their new website, Angelightstore.com. Gayle Atherton, owner of the Solana Beach, California company recently announced that the website will be live at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, October 19, 2015.

Gayle Atherton is a Feng Shui Master. Gayle began her study of Feng Shui almost 25 years ago in Hong Kong and she specializes in problem solving and helping her clients to create beautiful environments where they can relax and unwind. She plans to use her newly designed website to provide relaxation products as well as tips and techniques that consumers can use to enable complete relaxation in their homes.

Gayle states, "The aim behind the Angelightstore.com website is to empower my customers. I plan to offer general tips for creating a good Feng Shui Meditation nook so that my customers can build their own relaxation havens at home."

Gayle is also a long time Meditator herself with more than 30 years worth of meditation experience to share with her customers. In particular she has taught Meditation for 29 years, and practices meditation herself on a daily basis several times throughout the day. She explains, "My aim is to generally create a better world, one where people are peaceful themselves, and to show them what it takes to create their own wonderful environment at home. It would be wonderful if everyone were at peace."

The new website will offer meditation crystals that are designed and created by Gayle. She points out that these crystals are not like ordinary crystals. They follow a Fibonacci sequence and create geometric patterns when they reflect light. Gayle believes that this uniqueness is what allows them to create their special Feng Shui.

Those interested in seeing the handmade meditation crystals that Gayle will be offering can visit the new website when it is launched at <http://angelightstore.com/products/angelight-fu-meditation-crystal>. She plans to offer tips and advice for meditation and relaxation via her blog, which can be found at <http://blog.angelightstore.com/>.
