"Our team is excited to announce our next webinar discussing many topics regarding the legal right of victims injured in a slip and fall. There are many different types of locations slip and fall accidents happen, so it is important to know a victim has grounds to file a case. Some common locations are uneven pavement, icy sidewalks, wet floors in restaurants, faulty escalators in office buildings, and even slippery floors in gyms," stated Keith Kofsky, the managing lawyer at Philly Slip and Fall Guys.

"Because every case is unique, our experienced lawyers examine all the facts of the accident before stating how much compensation may be available. Our team understands how important financial compensation is to cover the medical expenses and loss of wages resulting from the injury," Keith Kofsky concluded.

The Philadelphia slip and fall accident lawyers represent Philadelphia residents and offer legal services to the surrounding areas, including Chestnut Hill, Roxborough, West Philadelphia, Manayunk, Kensington, Harrowgate, South Philadelphia East Germantown, and Port Richmond.
