Los Angeles, California ? After years of helping visitors and residents enjoy affordable party bus rentals Los Angeles, Los Angeles Party Bus Company has finally introduced a VIP transport service. The company notes that this service will be ideal for corporate CEOs, government officials, and everyone else exploring the city of Los Angeles and wants to have a Very Important Person experience on the road.

?Our party bus rentals Los Angeles are often referred to as clubs on wheels by customers who have used our services in the past,? said the company?s CEO. ?This is right considering that our party buses come with everything you would find in a club, from dance poles and a minibar to a spacious dance floor and music. However, we have always come across customers ? professionals to be more specific ? who are on official trips. While these customers may still want a minibar with drinks, they may prefer a quieter environment that reflects professionalism. Our new VIP transport service will be taking care of these professionals ? we will be adapting our party bus limousines Los Angeles to suit their needs.?

Los Angeles Party Bus Company reports that its fleet is made up of buses ideal for small to large groups. ?On our fleet,? said the company?s CEO, ?we have vehicles that can carry as little as 6 people to as high as 50 people. This means that our VIPs can travel in both small and large groups comfortably.?

According to the company?s CEO, the VIP transport service will not be limited to people within the boundaries of Los Angeles city. The company will also be servicing suburbs like Irvine, Thousand oaks, Newport Beach, Mission Viejo, Agoura Hills, San Clemente, Torrance, and Beverly Hills.

?We would like to let our customers know that the VIP service will be affordable,? said the company?s CEO. ?We intend to make the service accessible to every traveler. Therefore, this service will not be just limited to government officials or CEOs ? every regular resident or visitor who wants to feel what VIP travel is like can book the service.?
