October 05, 2021 -
EUGENE, Ore. ? Serenity Lane Intensive Outpatient Services, Eugene has announced they are one of the very few facilities to be designated a Blue Distinction® Center for Substance Use Treatment and Recovery. They were recognized under Regence BlueCross BlueShield of Oregon's Blue Distinction® Specialty Care program, which is a national designation for medical facilities that have demonstrated expertise in delivering quality care in this specialty.

"Serenity Lane is honored to be among the first recipients of the Blue Distinction® Center designation," Serenity Lane President and CEO Pete Kerns said. "A substance use disorder can throw a family into crisis. By guiding their members to effective, welcoming environments like Serenity Lane that are committed to excellence, Regence BlueCross BlueShield of Oregon provides hope in the storm. In our nearly 48 years of helping individuals and families, we have grown and refined our work alongside trusted partners like Regence BlueCross BlueShield of Oregon. This partnership makes it easier for us to help those battling substance use disorders. Together, we can save lives and put families back together."

Notably, Serenity Lane Intensive Outpatient Services, Eugene is among the first rehabilitation centers to be designated a Blue Distinction® Center for Substance Use Treatment and Recovery. This distinction validates their commitment to delivering quality treatment to those suffering from substance use disorders. Honored by this recognition, the company promises to continue providing the best care possible to those in need.
