October 04, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New York -- For more than two decades, the New York estate lawyers at the Matus Law Group have been representing families in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Over the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a significant interest in the families they serve and their community, offering a distinct and compassionate approach to legacy and estate planning.

"We have a group of very dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply a vocation but also a passion for us. Our life's work is to help families secure their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here every day," said the estate lawyer. "We believe we go beyond what many people expect of their attorneys and, because of this, we have developed something very unique at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney of the firm, has an individual connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the parent of a child with Down syndrome and has devoted a large portion of her practice to special needs families and their particular financial and estate planning needs. In addition, Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about brand-new resources and offers education and information in the unique needs arena. As a talented estate preparation attorney, she provides crucial information about monetary and estate preparation for special needs households so that they can have peace of mind about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other regional professionals so as to provide free information and online webinars to inform the public about financial resources, estate preparation, and what to expect for the future. The firm regularly wins honors and distinctions with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous three years. Their customers continue to offer praise, favorable reviews, and testimonials concerning their services.

Margaret Julia from New York states: "I cannot begin to say just how understanding and comforting the lawyers from Matus Law Group are. They were very kind and shared information to us to help with setting up a special needs trust for our son. They were very patient in answering our questions. Highly recommend!"

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the households and individuals that we work with. We take a team effort approach and our clients are dealt with like family. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to genuinely offer mindful and personalized care to our customers," said Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our customers as much as they appreciate us, and I think it shows in the representation we are able to offer and the continuing relationships we are able to build with the families and the community."

When it comes to matters of estate planning and preparation for the future, families and individuals rely on those who can offer compassion in addition to legal ability and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the gifted group of estate preparation lawyers at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make positive changes in the lives of their customers.
