David S. Leigh, Esq. is no stranger to working very hard on behalf of his clients. As managing attorney and founder at the Law Office of David S. Leigh, he has spent nearly a decade fighting diligently for the rights of his clients, holding negligent parties liable for the client's injuries and damages. As an experienced accident lawyer in New York, Mr. Leigh has seen the pain and suffering that carelessness and recklessness can easily exact on innocent victims and the untold physical and financial burdens these types of actions can cause.

During his career, Mr. Leigh has devoted his law firm to victims of car accidents, truck accidents, slip and fall incidents, wrongful death victims, and other serious personal injury cases in New York. Although Mr. Leigh is both an experienced negotiator and litigator, he really feels his main talent is his ability to appreciate his clients' circumstances and pay attention closely to their concerns. He really wants each client to clearly understand what is going on at every point during their case and never continues without having their informed input.

"Despite how complex a case is, every client should be able to understand exactly what is happening during their case, the possible consequences, and to know that they are heard and recognized. At our firm, we discuss each step of the process so they can be active parties in their case resolution," Mr. Leigh explained. "Knowing I am an integral part in getting their life back on track is what makes me enthusiastic about the law."

His clients appear to concur. Over the course of his career, clients have often discussed how thankful they were for Mr. Leigh's hard work and commitment to their claim.

Sharon Herbert from New York writes: "I was in a car accident about 2 years ago, and I was injured horribly. I went to a different attorney but they didn't really appear to care too much. So a friend told me about this personal injury attorney and said to come here instead. They were so great, I'm really grateful I made the switch. After I changed my car accident attorney, the whole process went much smoother and I was able to get an excellent settlement and get it quickly too. Very satisfied with my experience and would tell anyone to go here."

"I'm honored that our customers value all that we do for them. These evaluations and testimonials symbolize how committed we are to offering superior legal services for our clients," Mr. Leigh continued. "We only deal with contingency, so our customers never ever pay any legal charges unless we do our tasks and recuperate settlement on their behalf. Due to this, there is nothing to lose and everything to gain for somebody who has been hurt by a negligent party."

Mr. Leigh and his group of accident lawyers happily represent hard-working people throughout New York City. While they mostly concentrate on personal injury law, as it includes members of the community, the law office has also assisted people with a variety of legal issues that a community member may have experienced in their personal or professional lives.

Mr. Leigh comprehends no case is the same and each client is distinct, but, he tackles each claim with the very same diligence and commitment in order to ensure each client's best interests and legal rights are represented.

David S. Leigh, Esq. and the Law Offices of David S. Leigh are proficient personal injury lawyers with almost 10 years of experience representing victims of neglect.
