Ascot Vale Library Displays Art Exhibition by Anne Lawson

October 06, 2021

October 06, 2021 -
Ascot Vale, Melbourne, Australia: Ascot Vale Library is showcasing an art exhibition titled "The Worlds Between" by Anne Lawson until Wednesday December 8 2021. Anne is a local artist who creates works on paper that show the delicacy of the natural world.

The Worlds Between is a vibrant exhibition of mixed-media collages exploring the complex environments of wetlands, mangroves and rockpools?worlds which exist between land and water.

Anne Lawson is a self-taught artist and Ascot Vale resident. She creates bold works on paper, which seek to celebrate the intricacies of the natural world. Her practice has shifted from botanical art illustration to abstract mixed-media collages, allowing her to be adventurous with ideas and materials. The Worlds Between is Anne?s third solo exhibition. Her work is held in private collections around the world.

From her website, Anne describes her work as "original minimalist art inspired by the natural world ~ feathers, shells, leaves. Each one is a little jewel ready to put into that special place for you to enjoy each day. I am delighted to be able to offer you my unique artwork, knowing that each drawing and painting brings a small piece of tranquility."

A spokesperson for local Ascot Vale accountant EW Partners said, "It's great to see local artists being supported by the community. Anne Lawson's work is held in private collections around the world, so it's great to see it being showcased locally."

The exhibition is at Ascot Vale Library, 165 Union Rd, Ascot Vale VIC 3032. It is running from July 14 2021 until December 8 2021.
