The company's primary aim is to become a go-to place for Numismatic Coins in St. Petersburg.

Beantown Coins is a company established to buy, sell and trade collectible coins, both wholesale and retail, focusing on premium quality examples and scarce dates and types. It allows them the freedom to pass on higher, more deserving returns to clients than large dealers who are likely trying to sell the same merchandise to retailers.

The coin experts also share about rare coins, numismatic passions, and their desire to spread the love of the hobby to the next generation. So, whether someone is a seasoned coin dealer or coin collector, a young numismatist, or simply someone who loves a feel-good story, these entertaining and inspiring talks with coin experts are not to be missed. Indeed, anyone who visits Beantown Coins will walk away with a whole new perspective on what it means to be a numismatist.

The Florida coin company Beantown Coins also enjoys an extensive network. Beantown Coins team attends dozens of major shows and exhibitions across the U.S. each year, providing multiple outlets and channels to sell their products. ?This network allows us to make the most return on our products by understanding the needs of certain dealers and the locations in which certain products are highly desired,? the company states.

Likewise, Beantown Coins is also affiliated with American Numismatic Association, Numismatic Guaranty Corporation, Central States Numismatic Society, Professional Coin Grading Service, and Florida United Numismatists, Inc.

Beantown Coins President Joseph Palmieri also has years of numismatic experience and is trained by masters in this industry. While Joe attributes his success to understanding the bones of running a business, he admits that his specialties in branding, business management, and advertising have contributed to launching him to the top of his game.
