Readers can expect 13 miles of wide white sand public beaches, over 100 miles of bike and leisure trails, 23 golf courses on-island (another 22 nearby), and more than 300 tennis courts in Hilton Head. However, there are a few that should be high up on your sightseeing list to experience Hilton Head like never before. First is Hilton Head's extensive bike trails. This experience is for those who love long scenic rides. The island has over 65 miles of leisure trails for cyclists, runners, and walkers. In fact, it was once awarded a Gold Award from the League of American Bicyclists and was included in the top 25 list of bike-friendly communities.

The second Fun Things To Do in Hilton Head Island is to visit Daufuskie Island. Tucked between Hilton Head Island and Savannah, Daufuskie Island is a real gem. This trip offers a glimpse of the natural and timeless small community. Daufuskie provides a laid-back vibe perfect for those who want an escape.

Another thing to do when visiting Hilton Head is watching the Fireworks Boat Cruise. Visitors will enjoy the sights of the Shelter Cove Fireworks from the water. Guests depart just before sunset to enjoy the beautiful Lowcountry's sky as the sun fades away. And the last one yet one of a kind is to take a peek at the Endangered Arts, Ltd. The museum offers a diverse selection of fine art pieces from some of today's leading artists.
