Atlanta, Georgia ? A company that ensures its customers are where they need to be on time, Ambassador Limousine Service is getting a lot of positive attention from its previous customers. The customers are largely impressed with the company?s ability to arrive at the pick-up locations on time.

A recent customer, B Adkisson, had the following to say about Ambassador Limousine Service after using the company to travel from ? and back to ? the airport, ?Searching for a service I felt comfortable with in the Atlanta area was tougher than I thought it would be. Ambassador was wonderful - very professional from the person that answered the phone through the drop off service. We were picked up on time, and arrival at the airport was timely. The return trip from the airport to our home was superb. Stephen was waiting on us to arrive and was great. We will definitely use them again and highly recommend them. Their pricing is great. Vehicle was in great shape.?

?Ambassador Limousine Service works with a large number of executives,? said the head of staff at Ambassador Limousine Service, ?CEOs, corporate managers, you name them. These are people who need to be at specific destinations on time, otherwise, they may miss a major company event. This is why our team of chauffeurs keeps time. The drivers will always arrive at the airport earlier than expected ? when you step off the plane, you will get your limousine already waiting.?

Ambassador Limousine Service owns a fleet of party bus limousines Atlanta designed for airport pickups. The luxurious limos are maintained in a clean, well-polished state to ensure customers are enjoying the trip from the airport to their destination.
