Santa Ana, California ? When Nancy Linn noticed that some silver sheens that were part of her privacy screen had rotten at the roots, she knew that they had to go. When she contacted Tree Service Experts Santa Ana for help, the company was willing to accommodate her schedule. However, while removing the silver sheens, the tree removal team ripped Linn?s pop up. Nancy Linn appreciated the company for replacing the pop up immediately.

Speaking after working with Tree Service Experts Santa Ana, Nancy Linn had the following to say, ?They were able to accommodate my schedule. They removed three silver sheens that, sadly, had molded and rotted at the roots. They were very efficient and got it all done and cleaned up in an hour and a half. My pop up was ripped in the process, but they replaced it immediately. I highly recommend this company!?

?While we are always extra careful when handling tree maintenance procedures,? said the company?s CEO, ?we know that things can go wrong. Nancy Linn?s problem is a great example. To be able to take care of the damages that may result from tree care procedures, we are insured and bonded. When we noticed that we had damaged a utility on Nancy?s landscape, all we had to do is work with our insurance company to fix the damage.?
