Greg Yuter of Home Cash Guys says, ?Over the past year, we have helped a lot of people in Feasterville buy and sell their houses. Despite the pandemic, or perhaps because of it, our efforts have been able to really help people ? some of whom wanted a new house to move into and others who wanted to sell their unwanted properties for cash. Having seen how much of an impact we can make, we have decided to expand our services across the whole state and help more people.?

Home Cash Guys begins by purchasing a home, in any condition, for cash. Since they are investors and not real estate agents, they do not charge any commission or fees, making the service cheaper for homeowners looking to sell. The main draw of working with Home Cash Guys, however, is the fact that homeowners need not worry about any maintenance or repairs because the company buys properties as is. Working with Home

Cash Guys also takes away the tedious and time consuming process of listing with a realtor and waiting months for a home to sell. The company is very flexible and can work with a homeowner?s schedule. They often close in as little as two weeks.

The process of selling a home to Home Cash Guys is simple and straightforward. The first step is to get in touch with the company or visit their website and use their ?Get an Offer? feature in order to share some information about the home being sold. Following this, the company will review both the property and the local market before getting back to the applicant. The next step will either involve the company setting up a home visit for further inspections before an offer is made or an immediate, fast and fair cash offer. If the offer is accepted, the homeowner can figure out a sales timeline with the company and have cash in their hands on their schedule.

Yuter says, ?We work very hard to ensure that homeowners do not have to jump over and through several hoops before they can sell their homes and get their money. We are excited about expanding our operations to provide this service to the rest of Philadelphia and help them get the money they need in their hands when they need it.?

The services provided by the Home Cash Guys have endeared them to their clients, leading to their solid 4.3 out of 5 star rating on Trustpilot, as seen at the following link: https://www.trustpilot.com/review/homecashguys.com. Joseph Phillips writes in his 5-Star review, ?The sale transaction was very unusual due to the pandemic. I think the whole process took much longer because of this; however, they were able to adapt and make it happen. Tyler was great to work with in the beginning, and the closing team was very responsive. Overall, I was happy at the end.?

In another 5-Star review, Becky Shindell says, ?Tyler and the Home Cash Guys are incredibly professional, fair and gracious. I could not recommend this company more! Working with them was effortless, and it?s clear that it?s not just about money with them. They really care about the customer?s wants and needs, and that is invaluable. Incredible integrity. I would give them a ten out of ten and recommend them over any other cash home buyer!?
