

Bingo Advantage Offers USA Players Free Bingo for Cash Prizes

November 17, 2014

November 17, 2014 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bingo players can sign up to play free weekly bingo tournaments for cash prizes on Bingo Advantage (<http://www.bingoadvantage.com>). The site has been hosting these tournaments every Friday since its launch in 2003, and is the only completely free bingo website with cash prizes for American players. The site does not request deposits nor require credit card information from participants.

The players with the most weekly points win cash prizes, and there are also individual cash games. Cash bingo prizes are awarded to first, second, third and fourth place winners. There is also a consolation prize. A player qualifies for the consolation prize if he/she has the highest score and has not won in the previous two months.

Cashouts are completed every seven weeks. All participants must be over 18 years old and answer the site's skill testing questions.

Players can also join special surprise free bingo for cash games. Bingo Advantage announces these games in the website's gaming rooms a few minutes before they start. The games are also publicized in the Bingo Advantage Facebook group page up to two hours before start time.

Current tournament leaders, recent winners and players that are playing that week's tournament are announced in the 'Free Bingo' section of the website. Updates of the latest winners are also announced on Bingo Advantage's community forum.

Bingo participants won't be eligible for a tournament's cash prize for several reasons. They include playing in the same tournament room many times, playing with several accounts during the same cash tournament and playing in many rooms at once. Banned players cannot rejoin a game under a different name.

Winners can get their cash prizes through many ways of electronic payment. There is no least amount of payout for processing electronic payments. Bingo Advantage can no longer issue checks, but the site does recognize previous check requests.

The website welcomes visitors to comment and give feedback on site improvements. Such suggestions are useful for improving Bingo Advantage's quality of tournament playing and interaction between site users, according to site administrators.

Players can learn about the free weekly tournaments through Bingo Advantage's announcements. Bingo Advantage's Free Cash Bingo section is <http://www.bingoadvantage.com/views/play.cfm>
