

Amazing Selling Machine Closes Tonight, PReXpresso To Unveil Unprecedented Bonus Package

October 15, 2015

October 15, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

PReXpresso, a local marketing firm in Springfield, Missouri, is proving once and for all that good things truly do come in small packages. In a surprising turn of events, they paused their entire business last week to assist in the launch of the Amazing Selling Machine, an eCommerce training program.

By far the most popular and successful online training for Amazon sellers, ASM recently announced the launch of their newest installment last week. Founders, Jason Katzenback and Matt Clark, began the Amazing Academy to provide budding entrepreneurs with the ability to utilize the Amazon platform for their businesses. For many years, The Amazing Selling Machine has been launching thousands of successful entrepreneurs into the Amazon marketplace.

Caleb Allen, co-founder of PReXpresso.com, explained his company's unprecedented behavior, "I personally started the ASM course not long ago and the results are staggering. This is truly a system that anyone can follow to success on Amazon." In celebration of this newest ASM6 launch, Allen announced an exclusive bonus package for customers who purchase through his company. The package includes helpful software and additional training for first-time sellers.

"What we're most excited about," says Allen, "Is what we have planned for the final day". The Amazing Selling Machine only opens for a week or so every six months, which limits the amount of people who can get into the program. This edition is also rumored to be the last ASM launch ever, which further increases the exclusivity. The final day of each ASM launch is always the biggest sales day and Allen has his team prepared. "We offered a killer bonus package on the first day of the launch", said Allen, "And we are unveiling something even bigger for the final day."

The information for the additional bonuses will be released during an exclusive webinar that will also include valuable free training for beginning Amazon sellers. You can sign up for the exclusive training here. ASM6 closes on Thursday, October 15, 2015 at Midnight PST.
