October 19, 2021

October 19, 2021 -
Grand Rapids, MI - Great Lakes Building Concepts & Roofing Company of Grand Rapids is pleased to announce the grand opening of its new office in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Many new residential and commercial buildings have been coming up in the Western Michigan area, especially around the Grand Rapids Metropolitan area. It has created a massive surge in demand for professional roofing services.

Opening up a new office in Grand Rapids, Michigan, would allow the company to serve its residential and commercial clients better in terms of response rate, customer service, quick on-site inspection, and offer emergency roofing services at a moment's notice.

Great Lakes Building Concepts & Roofing Company of Grand Rapids has been planning to expand its commercial and residential roofing division in Western Michigan for a while now. The announcement of opening up of new office by the company comes as a result of months of deliberation and planning and commitment to its customers in the region.

The commercial and residential clients in and around Grand Rapids, Michigan, can now rely upon Great Lakes Building Concepts & Roofing Company of Grand Rapids for a wide range of roof types and services, including flat roofing, cedar shake roofing, asphalt shingle roofing, metal roofing, slate roofing, tile roofing, EPDM roofing, and more.

As a comprehensive exterior, roofing and home improvement service provider in the region, customers can also get in touch with Great Lakes Building Concepts and Roofing Company for roof repair, roof replacement, roof maintenance, emergency roofing services, roof coating, guttering, roof inspection, and more.

The opening of a new office in Grand Rapids, Michigan, would allow the company to add to its local resources and expand its team of licensed, experienced, and insured roofing experts. It would provide the company improved bandwidth to serve more customers with exceptional customer service, which Great Lakes Building Concepts & Roofing Company of Grand Rapids is known for.

Whether it is commercial or residential roofing, it needs professional expertise to take care of the roofing job, no matter the scale of the task. Any compromise with the roof's health can lead to structural damage to the entire property and put valuables and even human lives at risk.

The recent expansion would allow Great Lakes Building Concepts & Roofing Company of Grand Rapids to offer free on-site inspection to commercial and residential clients in and around Western Michigan. It tremendously helps in understanding clients' requirements while providing an optimal roofing solution that clients can rely on for the years to come.

As one of the company's commercial clients rightly puts it, "I am more than delighted to hear about Great Lakes Building Concepts and Roofing Company of Grand Rapids opening a new office in the area. With several stores and commercial buildings in and around Western Michigan, I've always had trouble with local roofing contractors in Grand Rapids earlier, but not anymore. Since they have taken over my roofing projects, I've never had to think twice about giving them a call regarding anything roofing, whether it is just a loose shingle or an entire roof replacement job. The best part is they've easy financing options available, which is a must for a business owner like me."

This location allows GLBC to better serve the Grand Rapids metro including downtown, Eastgate, Eastown, Ottawa Hills, South Hill, Alger Heights, Heritage Hill, East Hills, Medical Mile, West Grand, Fulton Heights, Creston Heights, and nearby neighborhoods.
