Arrowhead Clinic in Midtown Atlanta Gives Strong Reasons for Car Accident Victims To See A Chiropractor

October 20, 2021

ATLANTA, GA - October 20, 2021 -
Many car accident victims suffer from some serious injuries. Arrowhead Clinic in Midtown Atlanta specializes in the treatment of car accident injuries. Its team of Midtown Atlanta car accident doctors is widely popular for their specialized chiropractic skills that seek to use gentle techniques to relieve pain and pressure. These chiropractic techniques help accident victims find relief from debilitating pain.

Dr. James Toney, a chiropractor at Arrowhead Clinic, advises accident victims to seek medical care immediately after the incident, saying, ?Even if you feel fine after your auto accident, you may have sustained injuries like whiplash that could take hours, days, or even weeks after your crash to show symptoms.? Dr. Toney is known as the leading Midtown Atlanta car accident chiropractor with specialized skills in addressing the pain and discomfort associated with motor vehicle collisions.

The Midtown Atlanta chiropractor emphasizes the need for victims to see a doctor after the collision to diagnose any hidden injuries and find immediate pain relief. Timely medical intervention, along with regular chiropractic adjustments, can help rebuild the patient?s health.

A knowledgeable and trusted chiropractor in Midtown Atlanta knows a lot about car accident injuries and begins the treatment with a physical exam to check for any structural damages, neurological effects, numbness, tissue damage, muscle damage, joint issues, and nerve malfunction. Chiropractic care is designed to prevent any musculoskeletal injury from becoming chronic through regular spinal manipulations.

Dr. Toney asserts the importance of chiropractic care in the treatment of accident injuries, saying chiropractic ?means done by the hand." Manual therapy involves gentle spinal manipulations without requiring harmful medications or invasive surgeries. Timely chiropractic care is the first step in addressing root causes of pain without involving any adverse effects of drugs or surgeries.

Midtown Atlanta chiropractic professionals use adjustments and manipulations to realign joints following an automobile accident. The expert car accident doctors in Midtown Atlanta are friendly, kind, and compassionate. They have years of chiropractic experience in treating accident injuries and musculoskeletal pain and focus on helping patients prevent long-term injuries and chronic pain.

Chiropractors leverage chiropractic adjustments to improve the body?s agility and immunity, reduce inflammation, and restore health and wellness. Patients suffering from migraines, headaches, neck pain, hip pain, sciatica, whiplash, and discomfort can experience immediate relief from pain through chiropractic adjustments.

Visiting the best Midtown Atlanta chiropractor and receiving timely medical attention holds the key to a quick and lasting recovery as well as peace of mind. Accident victims can consult with the expert chiropractors at Arrowhead Clinic, who are aware of the common and not so common symptoms of car accident injuries.

The top car accident chiropractors in Midtown Atlanta, Georgia, help get victims on the road to recovery right away to help them regain mobility and live a pain-free life once again.
