October 22, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New York -- For more than 20 years, the New York asset protection attorneys at the Matus Law Group have represented clients in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder planning, asset protection, and real estate law. Throughout the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a significant interest in the families they serve and their community, offering a distinct and compassionate approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a group of really dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply an occupation but a passion for all of us. Our life's work is to help families secure their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are enthusiastic about what we do here each day," stated the asset protection attorney. "We believe we go beyond what many people expect from their legal representatives and, because of this, we have created something very unique at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney of the firm, has a unique connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a daughter with Down syndrome and has devoted a large portion of her practice to special needs families and their specific estate planning and financial needs. Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about new resources and offers education and information in the unique needs arena that families may have the ability to use. As a talented estate preparation attorney, she provides important information about financial and estate planning for special needs families so they can feel comfortable about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other regional specialists so as to provide complementary information and online webinars that help educate the general public about financial resources, estate preparation, and what to anticipate for the future. The company regularly wins honors and awards with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has actually appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the past 3 years. Their clients continue to provide praise, positive reviews, and testimonials regarding their work together.

Kyle Leach from New York states: "Christine and her team were wonderful! This was our first experience working with a lawyer and, as a new family, they made the experience peaceful. Any questions we had were answered promptly and they provided the education we needed to make the best decisions for our family's future."

"At the Matus Law Group, we are dedicated to making a difference in our community and to the households and people whom we work with. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family. Each member of the office has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to genuinely provide attentive and customized care to our clients," stated Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our customers as much as they value us, and I believe it shows in the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we develop with the households and the community."

When it pertains to matters of estate planning and planning for the future, individuals and families rely on those who can offer empathy in addition to legal skill and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the talented team of estate planning lawyers at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make positive changes in the lives of their customers.
