LAS VEGAS ? As the world continues to embrace the convenience of mobile devices, Vority has the perfect gift this holiday season for the person who has everything: the Vority Vigor 3S, a 3000mah power bank.

Compatible with a wide range of mobile devices, which are infamous for losing battery power at the most inopportune times, the Vigor 3S is a lipstick-sized external portable charger that allows users to power up their device anywhere and at any time.

It adds more than 150 percent full charge or 9 -10 hours of additional talk time to the iPhone. Most other smart phones gain at least a full charge, or more than 90 hours of audio playback time.

Perfect for students, travel, or busy lifestyles, the Vigor 3S is affordable and fast. With a 2-3 hour self-charge time using the included cable, it contains internal Samsung grade A cells and advanced microchips to ensure the highest quality.

The power bank was designed by people who use chargers. They made sure it is compact, lightweight and fits easily into any pocket or bag. The square body shape prevents the device from rolling off tables.

The automatic ?power on? feature ensures a proper connection and alerts users that the unit is charging. When the device is on, so is the power bank. The ?power off? feature is also automatic and shuts down the power bank when the device is fully charged.

Available in a variety of colors including black, blue and pink, the Vigor 3S can be purchased at VorityStore on Amazon.com, Vority's online marketplace. Now through Christmas Day, customers are able to purchase the Vigor 3S for 25 percent off the listed sale price by using the coupon code ME7Z698R at checkout. The promotion ends at 11:59 p.m. PST on Dec. 25.

To put new customers at ease, VorityShop boasts an impressive positive feedback rating and displays reviews openly for all to read. VorityShop has an overall rating of 4.8 stars, averaged from the more than 945 reviews over the last 12 months.

In addition to the Vigor 3S power bank, Vority sells several other cell phone accessories, include wall chargers, car chargers and battery cases, which would make great stocking stuffers as well. For those unsure about what to choose for those on their gift-giving list, Vority has gift cards available from $25 to $500.
