

Travel Agency in Destin, FL Highlights 2022 Cruise as Norwegian Cruise Line Adds New Ships

October 25, 2021

October 25, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Destin, Fla ? Norwegian, Oceania and Regent, the three cruise brands of Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings, are all back in service. While Oceania and Regent both have two ships a piece currently sailing, Norwegian has six ships in the water with three more ready to follow by December.

If you are ready to book a Norwegian Cruise, Have Travel Memories, a travel agency in Destin, FL with an expert team of cruise travel planners, is offering a 9-day ?Painting with a Twist? Alaskan cruise on the Norwegian Jewel in 2022! Starting at $1,299 per person, this Alaskan cruise will have all-inclusive meals and two ?Painting with a Twist? sessions with local artists. Guests will also have 74 different shore excursion options they can book in advance.

The ship will set sail from Vancouver, British Columbia on October 10, followed by an entire day at sea, and then arrive in the capital city of Juneau on October 12. The next day, the Norwegian Jewel will travel to the largest national park in southeast Alaska, Glacier Bay.

According to the Alaska National Park Service, "the spectacular scenery and wildlife of Glacier Bay make it a highlight of any Alaska cruise. The ship travels into the heart of the Fairweather Mountains for a trip into the ice ages. Watch for icebergs and calving glaciers. Scan the shorelines for wildlife...brown bears, mountain goats, sea otters, sea lions, harbor seals, bald eagles, and a variety of seabirds are regularly seen."

From there, vacationers will head towards the southernmost entrance of the famous Inside Passage to dock in Ketchikan. With the next two days spent at sea, the cruise ship will then dock in San Francisco on October 17. After one more day at sea, the cruise will end on October 19 in Los Angeles.

With over 20 years of experience, the team at Have Travel Memories is always encouraging their clients and their community to get out, explore and create memories that will last a lifetime.
