Long Island, NY-- Being charged with criminal activity in New York can have major consequences. Few people know this better than Long Island criminal defense attorney Jason Bassett. The impacts of a criminal conviction can be dire and can often even change the trajectory of a person's whole life. Mr. Bassett believes that nobody ought to deal with the criminal justice system on their own and without the advantage of a knowledgeable and experienced criminal defense lawyer.

As a knowledgeable criminal defense attorney, Mr. Bassett understands that the quality of criminal defense that an individual gets if they are charged with a crime can make a significant difference. Whether the charges get dismissed, reduced, a plea deal is put forward to the defendant, or if they end up in prison or jail and for how long, can often depend on the work of their defense lawyer. Whether an individual has actually been charged with theft, assault, murder, domestic violence, and even a DWI or DUI, a criminal charge and conviction can haunt them for years to come. This is why it is vital to have the representation of someone with the knowledge, experience, and determination to fight for the accused's rights.

"While criminal penalties and jail time are challenging enough, the way criminal charges and convictions affect the rest of that suspect's life can be similarly disastrous," said Mr. Bassett. "An accused can be penalized and serve their time, and yet for the rest of their life, there is a reminder that they are still thought of as a criminal in the eyes of society. A criminal charge can impact an individual's future employment, educational options, professional licenses and accreditations, and participation in particular government programs. Each time that individual applies for a job, the possible company will look at them differently. A well-crafted criminal defense is important to protect my clients not only from the criminal punishment itself but also these other long-lasting collateral repercussions."

A former district attorney, Mr. Bassett has seen the other side of the criminal justice system and the way lots of suspects feel they are without power within the system. He has turned his sights to criminal defense in order to help level the playing field and secure the rights of those who have been charged with a crime at either the state and federal levels. Both other attorneys and clients continue to offer positive reviews and testimonials concerning their work together.

Dexter Jacobi from Long Island states: "This is the guy to call if you have ANY legal issue. Mr. Bassett is intelligent, trustworthy, and meticulous in everything he does. Do not hesitate to contact him if you have legal questions. His services are reasonably priced and he responds promptly to all inquiries. Highly recommended."

In our legal system, an accused has important rights, and it is the criminal defense attorney's job to support those rights. With over 21 years in the criminal justice system, Mr. Bassett has committed his practice to safeguard the rights of his clients in and out of the courtroom.
