October 27, 2021: Manhattan, NY -- For over two decades, the New York probate attorneys at the Matus Law Group have been representing families in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Over the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a special interest in the families with whom they work and the community, providing a distinct and thoughtful approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a team of really dedicated people at the Matus Law Group. It is not just a vocation but a passion for all of us. Our life's work is to help people protect their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are enthusiastic about what we do here each day," stated the probate lawyer. "We believe we surpass what the majority of people expect from their lawyers and, because of this, we have produced something extremely unique at the Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has a personal connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a daughter with Down syndrome and has committed a large part of her practice to special needs families and their particular financial and estate planning needs. In addition, Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about new resources and offers education and information in the unique needs arena that families may be able to utilize. As a skilled estate planning lawyer, she offers critical information about monetary and estate preparation for special needs families so that they can worry less about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other regional specialists so as to provide totally free information and online webinars that help inform the public about finances, estate planning, and what to expect for the future. The firm regularly wins honors and distinctions with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has actually appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous three years. Their clients continue to provide praise, positive testimonials, and reviews regarding their work together.

Price Holub from New York City states: "Matus Law Group provided excellent service and offered timely advice when I was drafting my will. They have also continued to be available to answer any questions I have and provide supporting documents for transactions whenever requested. They are really great at what they do. Two thumbs up for you guys. :)"

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the families and individuals whom we represent. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family. Each member of the office has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the empathy and understanding that it takes to truly offer mindful and tailored care to our clients," stated Ms. Matus. "We value our customers as much as they appreciate us, and I think it shows in the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we develop with the families and the community."

When it concerns matters of estate planning and preparation for the future, individuals and families rely on those who can offer empathy in addition to legal ability and understanding. Christine Matus, and the gifted team of estate planning attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make a positive change in the lives of their clients.
