This month, the national alliance of sexual abuse lawyers announced that they had added sexual abuse attorney Reed Martens, Esq. to their network of assault attorneys. When asked why they chose Martens as their next Abuse Guardian, primary sponsor Brian Kent, Esq. went on to explain their selection criteria. ?AbuseGuardian.com holds our sex abuse attorneys to a high standard. Our evaluation examines the lawyer?s years of experience in the field of sexual abuse, the number of cases they?ve handled in this area, the number of large settlements and verdicts that have been reported, the publications that have been published by the lawyers at the law firm, client?s reviews about the firm, the awards the law firm has won, the lawyer?s community involvement, and the specific industry organizations that the lawyer is a part of.?

?Attorney Reed Martens have met all of these criteria and more. We are happy that he will be representing AbuseGuardian.com in Missouri,? Kent, Esq. went on to say. Reed Martens, Esq. has been handling sexual abuse litigations for many years at out of his law firm?s office at 4717 Grand Ave. #820, Kansas City, MO 64112. In 2019, he was selected to the Rising Stars list for Super Lawyers among lawyers across the state of Kansas and Missouri. Currently, he is licensed to practice law in the state and federal courts of Kansas and Missouri.

Martens, Esq., the sexual assault attorney of Missouri, will be representing victims and survivors of assault throughout the state, in areas like Kansas City, Jefferson City, Lee?s Summit, Hermann, O?Fallon, Sedalia, St. Peters, Warrensburg, Columbia, Higginsville, Monroe City, Cameron, Fulton, and Marshall. He has also established a helpline that is available 24/7 at (816) 319-3700.
