New York -- For over two decades, the New York bloodline trust lawyers at the Matus Law Group have represented clients in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder planning, asset protection, and real estate law. Throughout the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a significant interest in the families with whom they work and their community, providing a unique and caring approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a group of very dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not just an occupation but a passion for us. Our life's work is to help people protect their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here each day," said the bloodline trust lawyer. "We believe we go beyond what many people anticipate of their legal representatives and, because of that, we have developed something extremely special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney of the law firm, has a personal connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a child with Down syndrome and has devoted a large part of her practice to special needs families and their particular estate planning and financial needs. In addition, Ms.

Matus helps educate the public about new resources and provides education and relevant information in the unique needs arena. As a skilled estate preparation lawyer, she offers crucial information about financial and estate preparation for special needs households so that they can have peace of mind about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other local professionals to offer totally free information and online webinars that help educate the general public about financial resources, estate planning, and what to anticipate for the future. The company regularly wins honors and distinctions with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the past 3 years. Their clients continue to provide praise, positive reviews, and testimonials concerning their services.

Jeffrey Bill from New York states: "I only have good things to say to the lawyers at Matus Law Group. They made me feel great that I had chosen the best law firm to finish my estate planning. The process was efficiently executed. I am certain that if I require to make any changes going forward, I will receive the same expert service. I have recommended the Matus Law Group to others in my area. Thank you once again."

"At the Matus Law Group, we are dedicated to making a difference in our community and to the families and people whom we work with. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of understanding that they draw from and have the empathy and understanding that it takes to really offer mindful and tailored care to our customers," stated Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our customers as much as they value us, and I believe it shows in both the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we are able to develop with the families and the community."

When it comes to matters of estate preparation and planning for the future, individuals and families rely on those who can provide empathy in addition to legal skill and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the gifted team of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make positive changes in the lives of their clients.
