November 03, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New York -- For more than 20 years, the New York asset protection lawyers at the Matus Law Group have represented clients in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder planning, asset protection, and real estate law. Throughout the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a particular interest in the families with whom they work and the community, offering a distinct and compassionate approach to legacy and estate planning.

"We have a group of very dedicated employees at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply a vocation but a passion for all of us. Our life's work is to help families secure their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here each day," stated the asset protection lawyer. "We believe we surpass what most people expect from their attorneys and, because of that, we have produced something really special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney of the law firm, has an individual connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a child with Down syndrome and has devoted a large part of her practice to special needs families and their specific financial and estate planning needs. Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about new resources and provides education and relevant information in the unique needs arena that families might have the ability to use. As a skilled estate preparation attorney, she offers crucial information about financial and estate preparation for special needs households so they can have peace of mind about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other regional specialists so as to offer totally free information and online webinars that help inform the public about finances, estate preparation, and what to expect for the future. The company consistently wins honors and awards with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous 3 years. Their clients continue to offer praise, positive testimonials, and reviews concerning their work together.

Margaret Julia from New York states: "I cannot begin to say just how understanding and comforting the lawyers from Matus Law Group are. They were very kind and shared information with us to help with setting up a special needs trust for our son. They were very patient in answering our questions. Highly recommend!"

"At the Matus Law Group, we are dedicated to making a difference in our community and to the families and individuals whom we represent. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the empathy and understanding that it takes to genuinely provide attentive and individualized care to our customers," said Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our customers as much as they value us, and I think it shows in both the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we are able to develop with the households and the community."

When it comes to matters of estate planning and preparation for the future, families, and individuals look to those who can offer empathy in addition to legal skill and understanding. Christine Matus, and the gifted team of estate preparation lawyers at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to do this and to make a difference in the lives of their clients.
