

H&W Quality Products Announces That Public Positively Receives Coccyx Seat Cushion

October 21, 2015

October 21, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

H&W Quality Products is proud to announce that their flagship product, the coccyx seat cushion, has been very positively received by their customers. Meanwhile, because the company has recently launched their new website and due to the upcoming holidays, the company will also be running a store wide sale. This will give people the opportunity to try the coccyx seat cushion, available through <http://www.amazon.com/dp/B00YI4KH9I>, at a discounted price, and see why the product is well-liked. Those who purchase through the new website can enter code $5OFFORDER at checkout for a $5 discount. The offer will run until the end of this year.

"We have developed a number of products as a company now, but the coccyx seat cushion will always be our first and our favorite," says Greg Dunsworth from H&W Quality Products. "It embodies everything our company stands for: comfort and health. We have loved hearing how people have noticed true benefits from this seat cushion and can only hope many others will experience those benefits as well."

The new H&W Quality Products website was recently launched and is now fully operation. The store can be visited on <http://www.hwqualityproducts.com/>. The site shows the various products that have so far been launched, as well as enabling people to sign up to the H&W rewards club. By signing up, they will receive regular information, including promotions, discounts and more.

H&W Quality Products was founded on the premise of bringing health and wellness solutions to the consumer. "Our products are primarily focused on alleviating discomfort of everyday tasks such as sitting, standing, or laying down," adds Greg Dunsworth. "We also believe that being active is a way to promote wellness, which is why we also have products that increase comfort and/or performance in sport or leisure activities."

The coccyx seat cushion targets the discomfort of prolonged sitting, tail bone injury, and others. Customers are encouraged to 'like' the company's Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/HWQualityProducts?ref=aymt_homepage_panel. This will enable them to stay in touch and to join in the conversation.
