Boerum Hill, Brooklyn -- Personal injury laws have been developed to secure victims who have been hurt by another person. Under personal injury laws, a victim can submit a personal injury claim or civil legal action against the at-fault individual. These kinds of lawsuits entitle a victim to be recompensed for the injury done to them when it can be proven that carelessness was involved. Personal injury attorneys direct and guide their clients through the process, negotiating on their behalf and prosecuting these suits, when necessary.

Samantha Kucher, Esq., the founding lawyer at the Kucher Law Group, has dedicated both her career and her education to personal injury law. After law school, she was heavily engaged in pro bono work, offering assistance to those with few resources. Since then, she has committed herself to fight for victims' rights, especially those who have been harmed because of the carelessness and recklessness of others.

Due to Ms. Kucher's staunch advocacy for victims, Ms. Kucher's firm has gotten awards from companies and clients alike. Members of her firm have been rated a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers in 2020 as well as named among Thomson Reuters "Super Lawyers 2020." They were additionally named a "Top 40 Under 40" civil plaintiff trial lawyer in New York by the National Trial Lawyers Association. Her clients continue to offer favorable reviews and testimonials concerning their legal representation.

Millie Gaylord from Brooklyn states: "I've worked with them twice. One for a car accident and one for medical malpractice. I really recommend them to my family and friends because they did a great job with my cases. They are also friendly and really helpful. Great people."
