New Jersey -- For over two decades, the NJ commercial real estate lawyers at the Matus Law Group have been representing clients in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. For many years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a particular interest in the families with whom they work and the community, providing a unique and caring approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a team of very dedicated employees at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply an occupation but a passion for us. Our life's work is to help people secure their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here each day," stated the NJ commercial real estate lawyer. "We believe we go beyond what a lot of individuals expect of their lawyers and, because of this, we have developed something very unique at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus is the founding attorney and has a special connection to the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a child with Down syndrome and has dedicated a significant portion of her practice towards special needs families and their financial and estate planning needs. Ms. Matus also helps educate the public about new resources and provides information on the unique needs area that households might be able to use. She is a skilled estate planning attorney and provides vital information to families with special needs so that they can be less concerned about the future of their loved ones.

Matus Law Firm collaborates with other regional specialists to offer free information and webinars to educate people about finances, estate planning, as well as what to expect for the future. The company is regularly awarded honors and has been on the Law Firm 500 list for three consecutive years. The company continues to be praised by its clients and receive positive reviews and testimonials about its services.

Jeffrey J. Scott from New Jersey states: "Due to a death in the family I had to revamp my entire personal estate preferences. Christine Matus of the Matus Law group did a great job. I got a new Will made up, a Living Will, and other documents that I needed to be updated. Christine and her staff did a great job. Glad I used them."

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the households and individuals whom we represent. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family members. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of understanding that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to genuinely offer mindful and individualized care to our clients," said Ms. Matus. "We value our clients as much as they value us, and I think it shows in the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we are able to build with the families and the community."

When it pertains to matters of estate preparation and preparation for the future, individuals and families look to those who can offer empathy in addition to legal skill and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the gifted team of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to do this and to make a difference in the lives of their clients.
