Arrowhead Clinic in Riverdale, Ga Explains Why Accident Victims Should See A Chiropractor

November 10, 2021

Riverdale, Georgia - November 10, 2021 -
Arrowhead Clinic is the leader in car accident injury treatment in Riverdale, GA. Its team of chiropractors has experience and skill in accident injury treatment, with non-invasive and drug-free care. Dr. Valentina Adcock, the leading Riverdale car accident chiropractor, explains the aftermath of a motor vehicle collision for a victim. The car accident doctor says that some injuries may not heal for hours, weeks, or months and can remain hidden for a long time before showing symptoms.

Dr. Adcock cautions accident victims against ignoring their injuries, suggesting that they should seek immediate injury diagnosis and care. The chiropractor says that a lack of symptoms does not mean there are no injuries, as some injuries can remain hidden and become chronic if left untreated.

Arrowhead Clinic?s chiropractors are the top professionals in accident injury treatment in Riverdale. They have access to the best diagnostic testing tools and treatment options. Dedicated to patient care, car accident doctors in Riverdale, GA, treat soft tissue injuries and musculoskeletal injuries.

Dr. Adcock suggests that chiropractic care after an accident can reduce pain and muscular tension, which may also be accompanied by headaches and migraines. According to the best car accident chiropractor in Riverdale, hidden injuries can impact the quality of life of victims and prevent them from doing their job or caring for their families.

Dr. Adcock warns victims of the adverse effects of painkillers and drugs that are addictive and can affect the quality of life, unlike chiropractic care that is non-invasive and drug-free. The natural approach to accident injury treatment, chiropractic care in Riverdale, GA, revolves around chiropractic adjustments and spinal manipulations.

Car accident doctors in Riverdale work closely with personal injury attorneys to ensure that victims get the legal representation needed to build a strong accident claim against the negligent driver for causing the accident. Arrowhead Clinic has been working with leading personal injury lawyers in Riverdale, Georgia.

Their chiropractors work directly with insurance companies and document the victim?s injuries needed in the personal injury lawsuit. Advising accident victims to act quickly to avoid claim rejection later, Dr. Adcock explains, ?Even if you're worried your health insurance doesn't cover chiropractic care, and most insurers will, you will receive reimbursement for your chiropractic treatment in your accident settlement.?

The top Riverdale, GA, chiropractor suggests victims visit a car accident doctor within 72 hours of the incident to get treatment on time and get injuries documented. A Riverdale chiropractor performs a physical exam, reviews the patient?s medical history, and performs imaging tests like X-rays to make an accurate diagnosis before designing a customized treatment plan.

Dr. Adcock warns against delaying medical attention, adding that the healing process should be started right away as any delay could have an adverse effect on injuries. Any minor injury left untreated could worsen with time and require long-term treatment.
