November 10, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New York- New York City is not only one of the most important business and financial centers in the world, but it is likewise recognized for having among the most competitive realty markets in the world. Drawing in individuals from around the globe, New York City continues to be a mecca for those who wish to take down roots in the USA. Few know this better than Natalia Sishodia, managing partner of Sishodia PLLC, a boutique New York realty law firm concentrating on residential as well as commercial real estate deals, international realty financial investment strategies, as well estate planning, and also elder law.

Ms. Sishodia is well known for her ability to connect with a substantial spectrum of clientele, from New York City natives and to international clients from worldwide. Ms. Sishodia understands the frequently personal as well as delicate nature required in working with high-net-worth customers and, consequently, her clients continue to appreciate her persistence, support, and also attentiveness to everything she does.

Oliver Baumbach from New York writes: Natalia is very responsive, prompt and really really helpful. I recommend this law office if you have complex real estate transactions that need attention to detail. They're great real estate attorneys that will help you with everything they have.

Ms. Sishodia, a skilled real estate attorney, created the law office to provide detailed services for those acquiring commercial or residential realty in the New York metropolitan area. Her clients range from first-time single-family residence buyers to foreign investors, to highly seasoned industrial investors.

For many years, the real estate attorney has worked with clients worldwide, providing high-quality services for numerous high-net-worth individuals and organizations. She concentrates on high-end real estate transactions and has efficiently negotiated and also closed hundreds of purchases in New York City and the metropolitan area. Additionally, Ms. Sishodia practices estate and elder law, so that she has the ability to adeptly weave realty holdings right into a client's wealth management practices.

"I am so thankful that our customers appreciate all that we do for," Ms. Sishodia said. "Our evaluations are a testimony of exactly how hard we work for our clients to ensure that they are well-served and also represented. There are a lot of aspects to large property deals, particularly as they impact financial investment as well as multijurisdictional estate preparation approaches. While it can be complicated, our clients depend on that we are watching out for their benefits each action of the way."

While Ms. Sishodia frequently serves high-net-worth clients, she is also committed to giving back to the community, supplying pro bono solutions to those that don't have access or the financial means to obtain appropriate legal solutions. She is particularly pleased with her collaboration with Travelogion, a not-for-profit supporting via travel for post-treatment cancer patients.

Natalia Sishodia, Esq. and Sishodia PLLC provide knowledgeable legal counsel for residential as well as business real estate deals from contract to closing, consisting of sales and purchases, leasing, conversions, financing, and council for those who are worried regarding their estate or tax obligation implications. The firm offers customers throughout the New York area, including Manhattan, Brooklyn, Bronx, Queens, Westchester, Long Island, and the Hamptons.
