Long Island, NY-- Being charged with a criminal offense in New York can have serious repercussions. Few know this better than Long Island criminal defense attorney Jason Bassett. The impacts of a criminal conviction can be dire and can sometimes even change the trajectory of a person's whole life. Mr. Bassett believes that nobody must face the criminal justice system on their own and without the advantage of a proficient and experienced criminal defense attorney.

As a skilled criminal defense attorney, Mr. Bassett knows that the quality of criminal defense that a person gets after they are charged with a crime can make a big difference. Whether the charges get dismissed, reduced, a plea deal is presented to the defendant, or if they end up in jail or prison and for how long, can frequently depend on the work of their defense attorney. Whether a person has actually been charged with break-in, assault, murder, domestic violence, or even a DWI or DUI, a criminal charge and conviction can haunt them for years to come. This is why it is vital to have the representation of someone with the knowledge, experience, and determination to fight for the defendant's rights.

"Although criminal penalties and jail time are hard enough, the way criminal charges and convictions impact the rest of that defendant's life can be similarly terrible," said Mr. Bassett. "An accused can be punished and serve their time, and yet for the rest of their life, there is a reminder that they are still looked at a criminal in society's eyes. A criminal charge can affect an individual's future employment, educational options, professional licenses and certifications, and involvement in particular federal government programs. Each time that person gets a task, the potential employer will look at them in a different way. A well-crafted criminal defense is important to secure my clients not just from the criminal penalty itself but also these other long-lasting collateral repercussions."

As a former prosecutor, Mr. Bassett has seen the other side of the criminal justice and the way lots of suspects feel they are without power within the system. He has turned his sights to criminal defense so as to help level the playing field and safeguard the rights of those who have been charged with a crime at either the state and federal levels. Both other attorneys and clients continue to provide favorable testimonials and reviews concerning their work together.

Ankunding Nichols from Long Island states: "When we needed the help of an attorney for a demanding and serious situation, we searched for a great criminal defense attorney and found Jason Bassett. He is professional, brilliant, and trustworthy. He was reassuring and understanding. It's no surprise he is highly regarded. Truly outstanding!"

In the legal justice system, a defendant has important rights, and it is the criminal defense lawyer's task to uphold those rights. With over 21 years in the criminal justice system, Mr. Bassett has dedicated his practice to safeguarding the rights of his clients in and out of the courtroom.
