Online Music School Offers Online Certificate in Music and Technology

November 15, 2021

Duluth, Georgia - November 15, 2021 -
Atlanta Institute of Music and Media (AIMM), an accredited music college in Duluth, Georgia, is happy to announce that they are an online music school that offers a way for musicians to earn a certificate in music and technology even while they are at home. The Online Certificate in Music and Technology is an online music program for guitarists or bassists to allow them to master their instrument and also learn about music production skills, including tracking, mastering, and mixing. This program allows students to choose whether they would like to focus on guitar or bass. It is a nationally accredited Online Music and Technology Certificate made up of 36 credits that can be fully transferred to the Associate of Applied Science in Music and Technology Degree.

Nite Driscoll, President of Atlanta Institute of Music and Media, says, ?Are you looking for the best online music school as a musician or music producer? AIMM is the only name you need to know. The AIMM Online Certificate in Music and Technology is a completely online music program. Students can master an instrument of their choice (Guitar OR Bass) along with learning the top music production techniques. You'll not only be able to earn your AVID Pro Tools Certification, but you'll also learn how to record, mix, and master like your favorite professionals.?

This Certificate program is purely online and the courses provided through the program are designed to provide the necessary knowledge and education to improve their musical and engineering and recording capabilities. The program has also been designed for the immediate instrumentalist who also wants to be knowledgeable in recording and engineering, which allows them to grow in the music industry. In addition to their Bass or Guitar focus, students gain the knowledge and experience in music production methods, including mixing, recording, and mastering by applying AVID Pro Tools and Ableton Live.

Graduates of the program will have the opportunity to apply for more demanding and better-paying jobs as musician, producer or live sound engineer. AIMM offers various benefits and resources, such as having a broad musical curriculum experience and job placement after graduation.

Those who study at AIMM can expect a number of advantages. First of all, there is a work-study program that would be helpful for people with financial difficulties because it enables them to obtain a part-time position in the campus departments of the school. A second advantage is the broad musical curriculum experience given that students are able to experience musical flavors from various genres, such as, classical, jazz, blues, rock, folk, and R&B. Third, students may get a job placement after graduation. They can work with a placement specialist to develop a resume during the last quarter of attendance, after which they can apply for various in-field work opportunities.

Several AIMM alumni have been successful. One of them is Kesha Lee, who is an engineers who obtained a Grammy award for her work on ?This Is America,? a song by Childish Gambino. KEYZBABY, or Jay Foye, is a producer who co-produced ?WAP,? 2020's top song in the US. Tosin Abasi has gained famed as a phenomenal guitarist who founded the band, Animals as Leaders, and his own line of guitars. Furthermore, AIMM alumni have experienced working with famous musical artists and companies, such as: Kandi, Snoop Dogg, Cardi B, Megan Thee Stallion, Ludacris, Ciara, Beyonce, Steve Vai, Rick Ross, Justin Bieber, Mary J. Blige, Childish Gambino, Mariah Carey, Lil Uzi Vert, TI, Nelly, 2 Chainz, and Brantley Gilbert.

Atlanta Institute of Music and Media is focused on providing a distinctive and effective strategy for the vocational training of musicians, engineering and production students using a well-balanced curriculum, private instruction, a computer lab, classroom instruction, audio, DVD and video labs, and live clinics.

People who would like to learn more about AIMM Online Program can visit the Atlanta Institute of Music and Media website, or contact them on the phone or through email. They can be contacted from Monday to Thursday, from 10:00 am to 11:00 pm, and on Fridays from 10:00 am to 8:00 pm.
