Mother Thanks Legacy Healing Center for Helping Her Son Recover from Addiction

November 12, 2021

Margate, Florida - November 12, 2021 -
Margate, FL - Stories of people going through multiple addiction treatment programs before finding a treatment program that works are common because not all treatment centers are the same. The story of one woman and her son is a perfect example of how finding the right behavioral health center can make all the difference.

Tracy?s son had been through several addiction treatment programs and sober living homes in an attempt to overcome substance use disorder. Tracy discovered Legacy Healing Center in Florida and decided to try them based on the positive reviews she read on Google outlining their merits and compassionate touch.

Fortunately, Tracy?s son found the effective treatment he needed at Legacy, and Tracy herself was moved to leave the center a 5-star review. She said, ?There have been several other rehabs and sober living places that our son went through and by far this was the one that made the impact!. While Legacy offers the nice houses and environment, they truly care about their clients.?

Legacy Healing Center is an accredited addiction treatment center that has sought out some of the most compassionate and skilled healthcare providers from across the country. It is their team and level of genuine compassion that sets them apart from other treatment facilities.

?What makes Legacy different is a combination of things; it?s the esthetics of the facility and the community housing component are tremendous; the amenities are tremendous but most importantly, the staff,? said CEO and Chief Clinical Officer, David Levin.

Legacy Healing Center has established itself as a leading addiction treatment facility in South Florida and New Jersey. Their comprehensive treatment plans can effectively treat co-occurring mental health disorders such as trauma or post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). Tracy went on to say, ?They have a trauma therapy program that helped my son, and anger management skills to work with.?

Along with the complete therapeutic addiction treatment options, the treatment center understands the importance of healing the whole person to help their clients to improve their lives in multiple ways.

?Our legacy is to help each and every one of [our clients] to create a sober identity and to achieve a life free from the chains of active addiction so that they can be the best versions of [themselves], be productive members of society, and be the parents, children, siblings, and grandparents that they are intended to be,? Mr. Levin said.

Legacy Healing Center?s compassionate touch combined with its extensive range of therapies and treatments makes long-term sobriety more achievable ? especially for those struggling to sustain their recovery.
