

Corkscrew And Wine Opener Gift Supplier VinousQ Announces Launch Of Social Media Pages

November 18, 2015

November 18, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

VinousQ has recently announced that they have created pages on the social media sites of Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest as a way to keep their customers better informed and to provide useful tips. These pages are now live and the company plans to update the information regularly for the benefit of their customers. VinousQ is the manufacturer of a corkscrew wine and beer bottle opener that has already received several positive reviews at Amazon.

Spectar Que, Assistant Manager for the company states that more information from the company will be released through their new social media pages over time, and that their current readers are encouraged to follow those pages for product updates and more. He also stated that since VinousQ is still the new kid on the block, there is a strong chance of more discounts to come. Readers are encouraged to follow all of their social media pages for a number of promotional opportunities.

Que says, "Our wine opener continues to receive strong positive feedback. This week alone we have received 10 new positive Amazon reviews. We are thankful for our customers' support, which is why we have decided to aggressively reach out about our product."

VinousQ has also be expanded its sale of the wing corkscrew beyond the Amazon platform. They now offer the wine accessory on Shopify as well. They urge readers to continue to follow their pages for updated news. "We are growing very quickly, and super excited. This is all thanks to the support of our wonderful customers. We encourage everyone to follow us on social media for the latest update on our products," states Que.

The company offers a number of gift idea products, and plans to use their social media sites to update customers as they release new products in the future. Their current product, a wine cork screw, can be found on the Amazon marketplace, and comes in a gift set that the company states is perfect for giving in the upcoming holiday season.

More about the company, including where to find their new social media pages and information on other products that they have available, can be seen on their official website.
