November 12, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Manhattan -- For over twenty years, the New York bloodline trust lawyer at the Matus Law Group has been representing families in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Over the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a particular interest in the families they serve and their community, offering a distinct and caring approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a group of really dedicated people at The Matus Law Group. It is not just an occupation but a passion for all of us. Our life's work is to help people protect their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are enthusiastic about what we do here every day," said the bloodline trust lawyer. "We believe we surpass what many people expect from their attorneys and, because of that, we have created something really special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney of the law firm, has a personal connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a child with Down syndrome and has committed a large portion of her practice to special needs families and their specific financial and estate planning needs. She helps educate the public about new resources and offers education and relevant information in the unique needs arena. As a skilled estate planning attorney, she provides critical information about monetary and estate preparation for special needs households so that they can worry less about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other local specialists in order to provide complementary information and online webinars that help educate the public about financial resources, estate preparation, and what to anticipate for the future. The company consistently wins honors and accolades with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous 3 years. Their clients continue to offer praise, positive testimonials, and reviews regarding their services.

Considine Mizell from Manhattan states: "Detailed, personable, patient as well as reliable. We really feel happy and also relieved that every single wish we have for our will was outlined. Christine is awesome! She was extremely attentive to our needs. She is easy to work with and incredibly understanding. Highly recommend!"

"At the Matus Law Group, we are devoted to making a difference in our community and to the families and individuals that we represent. We take a team effort approach and our clients are dealt with like family. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of understanding that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to really provide mindful and individualized care to our clients," stated Ms. Matus. "We value our customers as much as they appreciate us, and I think it shows in the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we develop with the families and the community."

When it concerns matters of estate planning and planning for the future, families, and individuals look to those who can provide empathy in addition to legal skill and understanding. Christine Matus, and the talented group of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make a difference in the lives of their customers.
