

Childcare School in Austin Reminds Parents About School Holidays in 2021

November 16, 2021

November 16, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Happy Bunnies Child Care School, an Oak Hill daycare school in Austin, TX, has reminded parents about the upcoming school holidays when the school will be closed. According to their latest blog post, Thanksgiving Day on November 25, 2021, and Black Friday on November 26, 2021, are school holidays. And in December, the school holidays will be Christmas Eve on December 24, 2021, and New Year's Eve on December 31, 2021. The school will also be closed on December 27, 2021. The preschool and early learning center uses their blog page to provide important news and information to parents.

Magdalena MacLeod, School Director of Happy Bunnies Child Care School, says, "Parents, please take note of the upcoming school holidays so that you can make the necessary adjustments to your schedule. And please keep checking out our blog page to stay updated on news and events related to our school. Advanced Happy Thanksgiving and happy holidays, everyone!?"

She adds, "For parents who are looking for a daycare school for your kids, Happy Bunnies Child Care School is a happy place for your happy children. Here, you will find the well-proven British curriculum. You get high levels of care, built on my years of teaching experience. It's something unique, something no other Oak Hill daycare school can give you.?

And for parents who are wondering where they can get clear daycare costs in Austin, TX, they will find this on the Happy Bunnies Child Care School website. They want to emphasize that in contrast to other preschools and daycare centers, parents will find the actual rates on the school's website such that it is easy to read and understand them.

It should be noted that a key component of the daycare costs are the professional teachers. They have all been vetted and ensured to be top professionals when it comes to teaching and guiding young children. And the teacher-child ratios at Happy Bunnies Child Care School always surpass the state minimum levels.

Magdalena MacLeod says, "There is no doubt that child care is a significant investment for many parents. However, many parents find it more affordable than expected, given our unique system, curriculum, and years of proven experience. Despite being a top school, our rates are very typical for Austin preschools.?"

They will also accept registration from subsidized children, and they can also help parents check their eligibility with the Austin Workforce Commission. Under this particular scheme, the amount parents pay is based on their take-home pay. The amount to be paid by the parent for daycare will be specified by the Childcare Services department, depending on their household income. With this scheme, parents may be able to benefit from significantly reduced tuitions under this scheme.

Parents who have sent their kids to Happy Bunnies Child Care School say highly positive things about the daycare and preschool. For instance, Ace S.M. says, "We have been sending our son to Happy Bunnies since he was just three months old. (He's 17 months now) The staff at HB are more like family now, and we couldn't be any happier. I especially love it when my son brings home artwork from the fun activities that they plan. These tiny pieces of art are something that I will always cherish.?"

Happy Bunnies Child Care School was established by Magdalena MacLeod, who has several years of experience in operating schools. She started her chain of schools in 2008 when she took over the ownership of three well-established daycare centers and preschools near London, UK. These schools were already in existence for 20 years when she took over. And it was in 2018 that she obtained the ownership of the preschool in Oak Hill in Austin. The previous owners of the school had wanted to retire after operating the school since 1993.
