The Matus Law Group New York Asset Protection Lawyers, Receives One More Favorable Review

November 15, 2021

November 15, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New York -- For over twenty years, the New York asset protection lawyers at the Matus Law Group have represented families in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Over the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a significant interest in the families they serve and the community, providing a unique and thoughtful approach to legacy and estate planning.

"We have a team of very dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply a vocation but also a passion for us. Our life's work is to help people protect their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are enthusiastic about what we do here every day," said the New York asset protection lawyer. "We believe we go beyond what the majority of people anticipate from their lawyers and, because of this, we have developed something really special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney of the firm, has a personal connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a daughter with Down syndrome and has devoted a large portion of her practice to special needs families and their particular estate planning and financial needs. In addition, Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about brand-new resources and provides education and relevant information in the unique needs arena. As a talented estate preparation attorney, she provides important information about financial and estate preparation for special needs households so they can feel comfortable about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other local specialists in order to provide totally free information and online webinars to educate the public about financial resources, estate planning, and what to expect for the future. The firm regularly wins honors and awards with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has actually appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the past three years. Their clients continue to provide praise, favorable reviews, and testimonials concerning their work together.

Nickolas Butler from New York states, "Working with Christine to set up our estate documents was a smooth and painless procedure. She discussed the documents and the concepts behind them in detail and in a way that was easy to understand. She and her team were responsive to our inquiries. My wife and I were very reassured knowing that our child is protected in case anything were to happen to us."

"At the Matus Law Group, we are devoted to making a difference in our community and to the families and people that we work with. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family members. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the empathy and understanding that it takes to truly offer attentive and individualized care to our clients," stated Ms. Matus. "We value our customers as much as they appreciate us, and I believe it shows in the representation we are able to offer and the continuing relationships we are able to develop with the families and the community."

When it pertains to matters of estate preparation and preparation for the future, families, and individuals rely on those who can offer compassion in addition to legal skill and understanding. Christine Matus, and the skilled team of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to do this and to make positive changes in the lives of their clients.
