Baychester, Bronx -- Personal injury laws have been developed so as to secure victims who may have been harmed by another party. Under personal injury laws, a victim can file a personal injury lawsuit or civil claim against the at-fault party. These kinds of lawsuits entitle a victim to be compensated for the harm done to them if it can be proven that negligence was involved. Personal injury attorneys direct and guide their clients through the process, negotiating on their behalf and litigating these lawsuits, when necessary.

Samantha Kucher, Esq., a founding lawyer at the Kucher Law Group, has devoted both her legal education and her career to personal injury law. After law school, she was seriously involved in pro bono work, providing assistance to those with few resources. Ever since, she has dedicated herself to fighting for victims' rights, particularly those who have been injured because of the negligence and recklessness of others.
