October 27, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Newport Beach, California based McLean Masterworks has announced their second annual Life After Death week long workshop series. The series is part of the company's current sixteenth season of Healing with the Masters and is designed to help those who are grieving to cope with and better handle the thought of their loved ones in the afterlife.

Featuring renowned spiritual mediums, near-death experts, spirit communicators and afterlife masters, this powerful, week-long, interactive workshop will change people's perception and understanding of both life and death, transforming the relationships of attendees with loved ones on the other side. The company states that they expect record turnout for this year's event.

According to the event founders, listeners will be given the chance to interact with well-known spirit mediums, channelers and communicators and be able to communicate with their loved ones who have passed away. More information about the event including how to register can be found on the official Healing With The Masters Facebook page.

Jennifer, one of the event founders and spokesperson for the company, states, "To honor the passing of my sister, Abbie, in June of 2013, I went on a deep study of the afterlife and wanted my audience to experience some of my favorite masters on this subject. Thousands tuned-in last year for our first Life After Death Week and shared how this workshop initiated deep, personal healing and transformation at the most vulnerable levels. Because overcoming loss is a challenge unlike any other and one that should not be faced without support, we had to turn this powerful week-long workshop into an annual event."

Life After Death guest speakers will include Elisa Medhus, a popular afterlife communicator, author and veteran physician; Suzanne Giesemann, acclaimed psychic medium, messenger of hope and metaphysical teacher; and Colette Baron Reid, renowned oracle, intuitive counselor, TV personality and bestselling Hay House author. Also slated to speak is Annie Kagan, author of "The Afterlife of Billy Fingers" and afterlife communicator.

Those interested in attending can visit the Healing With The Masters registration page for more information including how to join in the event and receive updates about future planned events.
