Monmouth County -- For over twenty years, the New Jersey real estate attorneys at the Matus Law Group have represented families in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Over the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a particular interest in the families they serve and their community, offering a distinct and compassionate approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a group of very dedicated employees at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply a vocation but also a passion for us. Our life's work is to help families safeguard their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here each day," said the real estate attorney. "We believe that we exceed what many people anticipate of their lawyers and, because of that, we have produced something really unique at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has a unique connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mom of a child with Down syndrome and has devoted a big part of her practice to special needs families and their particular estate planning and financial needs. Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about new resources and offers education and information in the unique needs arena that households might be able to use. As a talented estate planning lawyer, she offers crucial information about monetary and estate planning for special needs households so they can have peace of mind about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other local professionals in order to provide free information and online webinars that help inform the public about finances, estate planning, and what to expect for the future. The firm regularly wins honors and accolades with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the past three years. Their customers continue to provide praise, favorable testimonials, and reviews concerning their services.

Carleen Dopf from Monmouth County states: "We are longstanding clients of The Matus Law Group, and recommend them highly! They have represented us through Real Estate transactions and most recently with our Estate Planning. They show genuine care for their clients and always give much attention to details and questions of concern. Lastly, I would like to add that they are always warm, friendly, and welcoming!"

"At the Matus Law Group, we are devoted to making a difference in our community and to the households and individuals that we work with. We take a team effort approach and our clients are treated like family. Each member of the office has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to really offer attentive and customized care to our clients," stated Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our clients as much as they value us, and I think it shows in both the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we develop with the households and the community."

When it concerns matters of estate planning and planning for the future, individuals and families look to those who can provide empathy in addition to legal ability and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the gifted group of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to do this and to make a difference in the lives of their customers.
