Managers, Agencies, Coaches or anyone looking to help Amazon sellers with a full suite of management software, can now do so by creating their own ManageByStats Affiliate account. MBS has an industry-leading Affiliate program, which is open to anyone wishing to promote the MBS suite to Amazon sellers. Each ManageByStats user is automatically assigned their own Affiliate account, but non-MBS users can also sign up for their own, dedicated Affiliate account and bring in referrals. MBS pays a 25% commission for the main service, and pays this commission each time the referral pays.

?Our program is one of the best out there,? says MBS CEO, Philip Jepsen. ?No other tool or solution provider for Amazon sellers makes it this attractive to recommend new users. We pay commissions as long as the referral is paying MBS. And we have a tremendous suite of tools ? 25 in all ? which makes it easy to interest and close prospects.?

ManageByStats gives managers and agencies the resources they need to manage their Amazon-selling clients, whether it be individual sellers or large groups. MBS provides tools for overseeing profit, visualizing trends, reporting, analytics, inventory, PPC campaign management, automated customer emails, product listing optimization, keywords and more, making it one of the more sought-after software solutions in the Amazon space.

?It?s a great time to be an MBS affiliate,? says Mister Jepsen. ?So many people are getting into Amazon and becoming sellers, and as they do this one of the first hurdles they run into is the sheer complexity of managing an Amazon business. Our tools make it easy for sellers of all sizes to oversee and run their Amazon business successfully. As an Affiliate you can help that client base meet those needs, while at the same time earning commissions.?
